COURT DECISIONS.

DIGESTED BY W. B. MARTIN

Our People.BROWN V. STATE.
Supreme Court of Georgia.
May 12, 1900.

WHEN A PASSENGER WHO IS IN A CAR OTHER THAN THAT TO WHICH HE HAS BEEN ASSIGNED, REFUSES TO LEAVE IT ON REQUEST OF THE CONDUCTOR, HE IS LIABLE TO PROSECUTION UNDER SECTION 528 OF THE PENAL CODE, EVEN THOUGH HE WAS ONLY PASSING THROUGH THE CAR.

Brown was convicted of remaining in a car other than that to which he had been assigned and appealed.

The court says:
At the trial it appeared that an excursion train, upon which both white and colored people were transported, was run from Savannah to Macon. Before leaving Savannah, the colored passengers were assigned to two of the cars composing the train, and the white passengers to another of them. The train was proceeding to go from the front car when the colored people entered it. At a point in Washington county, Brown left the rear car, in which colored people were riding, and entered the car in which the white passengers were seated. It makes no difference whether the passenger, whom he called to his assistance, forcibly ejected Brown from the car thus subsequently entered him for "re-maliciously" in that car after having been assigned to another. As to the facts above recited there was practically no controversy. It is inferable from the testimony of the conductor that Brown had been assigned in Savannah to the rear car set apart for people of his race. His contention was that, having at some point on the journey left the car, he was going into the rear car, he was proceeding to do so, and the conductor, who had for this purpose only entered the intermediate car occupied by white people, when he accosted by the conductor and requested to leave the same. There was, however, evidence for the State to the effect, that when this request was made, Brown, with an oath, refused to leave the car, declaring that he had where he pleased and had a right to ride upon ejected from the car. It makes no difference whether, in point of fact, Brown's proper place was in the front car or in the rear car set apart for colored people. In neither case was it lawful for him to remain in the car, but he was ejected by the conductor to leave the same. Giving the accused the full benefit of the theory that he entered the white people's car with no intention except to pass through the same and would have done so if he had not been interrupted, the above-recited evidence as to what actually occurred when the conductor accosted him warranted the conclusion that he committed the misdemeanor forbidden by section 528 of the Penal Code. He, it is true, denied the correctness of that version of the matter; but we must deal with the facts as they were presented to the jury, as it was their right to do, believed the State's witnesses. If, when requested by the conductor to leave the white people's car, the accused had promptly proceeded to do so, as required, we are not prepared to say he would have been a criminal merely because of the fact that he had unlawfully entered this car. The gist of the offense is remaining in a car other than the one to which a passenger may have been assigned, and the State's evidence warranted a finding that the plaintiff in error did remain in a car other than that to which he had been assigned. His refusal to leave the car, accompanied by the positive assertion of a right to ride therein, and resistance to the conductor's effort to evict him, certainly was remaining, and the length of time he remained was, of course, immaterial. Affirmed.

PICKETT-BUCHANAN CAMP.

LADY REPRESENTATIVES OF
"THE LOST CAUSE" WILL BE PRESENT.

The meeting of the Pickett-Buchanan Camp, Confederate Veterans, tonight, will be made doubly pleasant and interesting by the presence of Miss Florence Barlow and Miss Davis, of Kentucky. The former represents the Confederate publication, "The Lost Cause." She is a talented and accomplished young woman, and an eloquent and considerable reputation. Miss Barlow has consented to recite "Stonewall Jackson's Way" and other poems of a like character for the benefit of the veterans and their friends, who will be given a most cordial welcome to the camp's hall.

Ready for the Cars.

Mr. Scott, of Baltimore, representing J. L. Blackwell, also of Baltimore, the chief engineer in charge of the Norfolk and Atlantic Terminal Company's Railway, will arrive here to-day. He comes to inspect the work of the contractors and to give estimates of its cost. On these estimates the drafts of the contractors are paid. All of the drafts, so far, have been paid. The viaduct is not quite finished, but with that exception the road is in a condition to start the cars the last of this week or the first of next week. The first regular train may start on Thursday of this week.

Guy, Jr., of Lynchburg; with Mrs. Mulford, of Newport News; Mr. Cabell A. Thomas with Miss Annie Allison, of Petersburg; and Mr. H. C. Jopling, of Norfolk, with Miss Florrie Clayton.

Recent arrivals at Blue Ridge Springs, Va., include Mr. J. B. Whitehead, Mrs. W. T. Walke and daughter, of Norfolk; Rev. Z. S. Farland and wife, of Portsmouth; and Mr. J. E. West, of Suffolk.

The event of the week at Yellow Sulphur Springs, Montgomery county, Va., was the German Friday night, in which fifty couples participated.

The guests were most notable for exceeding style and daintiness, the rustle of silk and mull, lace, and furbelows, the animated faces and bright eyes of the dancers but added enchantment to a scene that was bewildering in its loveliness. Refreshments are given descriptions of some of the most noted ones:

Miss Wilcox, of Norfolk, Va., an effective dress of cream silk mull, chiffon trimmings, and made low in the neck.

Miss Mary Moyler, of Petersburg, Va., petite figure was set off by a gown of palest peach-colored crepe de chene and soft falls of lace.

Miss Moyler, of Petersburg, Va., who is as popular and lovable as she is pretty, wore a pink silk gown, with trimmings of pink chiffon and lace; low neck.

Miss Edie Harrison, of Petersburg, Va., was the loveliest of the group in white organdy over taffeta, point lace, and diamonds.

Miss Nannie Davis, of Petersburg, Va., petite figure, was set off by a pink embroidered crepe over pink satin and trimmings of lace and chiffon.

Miss Mary Patterson, of Petersburg, Va., was arrayed in pale blue organdy over silk.

"Kimono parties" are now quite the thing at Goshen. The young ladies look charming in the graceful Japanese costumes of beautiful and varied silks. Refreshments are served at any and all times and consist of melons, peanuts, candies, etc.

At Newcastle, Va., last week, the Bel Air ladies gave a benefit entertainment at the Newcastle Institute building for the purpose of raising money for the "Punch Spring" in the hotel grounds, Bel Air, Wednesday evening, were Col. C. A. Nash and the Misses Nash, of Norfolk, and the Misses Wilson and Jordan, of Portsmouth. At the spring a rustic arbor, made of curly-birch, which was designed by Misses Robinson and Boykin, of the hotel, was lighted by Japanese lanterns. Over the spring a dainty table was placed, and on it trays of sandwiches and huge bowls of lemon punch. The ladies who helped Mrs. Boykin receive were seated and standing around the table, and out on the grassy terrace above the pavilion were seated a merry company of the guests, who enjoyed to the utmost the refreshments.

Among the late arrivals at the Rock-bridge Alum are the following: P. S. Cohoon, B. F. Hofheimer, Miss Mary Bayham, L. L. Latham, C. Jones and wife, Edward Wilcox, of Norfolk, and H. M. Milay, P. T. Marry, Miss Julia Waddill and Thos. D. Adams, of Newport News.

At a charming "literary party" given on Monday of last week at Old Sweet Springs, W. Va., the sum of $77 was netted for an object dear to the hearts of all Southerners—the Jefferson Davis Monument Fund.

There were eleven beautiful tableaux, each representing the title of a book. Pencils and paper were distributed through the audience, and first and second prizes were awarded to those making the highest number of correct guesses. Among the four successful contestants was Master Harold Wrenn, of Norfolk.

At a swimming party given last week at Old Sweet Springs, eighteen of the jolliest and most expert girl swimmers participated. Miss Wrenn won the prize for the fastest swimmer. At the close of the contest the girls were served the delectable collations in the waiting room of the bath house. Miss Lee's guests included the Misses Wrenn, Tunstall, Vaughan and also Mrs. John Tilton.

Among the late arrivals at Old Sweet Springs are: George McK. Bain, Mrs. George McK. Bain and C. R. Dey, of Norfolk.

At a card party given at Crockett Springs, Va., Tuesday evening progressive four-hand euchre was played. The first prizes were received by Mrs. J. R. Hubert and Mr. J. L. Hubert, of Norfolk. Miss Serpell, of Norfolk, and Mr. Tutwiler, of Birmingham, were the recipients of the second prizes.

Among the recent arrivals at Crockett Springs was Mr. R. T. Hubbard, of Norfolk.

At the brilliant bal poudre, given Tuesday night at the Montgomery White Sulphur Springs, Mrs. W. H. H. Trice was the reception committee. Among the dancers was Miss Louise Trice, of Norfolk.

At the last euchre party at the Montgomery White Sulphur Springs one of the prizes was won by Mr. A. M. White, of Norfolk.

Among the recent Norfolk arrivals at the Montgomery White Sulphur were: Mr. and Mrs. A. M. White, Judge F. M. Whitehurst, Mrs. Whitehurst and Miss Ethel Whitehurst.

The German on Wednesday evening at Sweet Chalybeate Springs was the largest and most brilliant of the season. It was beautifully led by Mr. Old, of Norfolk, with Miss Hillard. Among the other dancers were Miss Leigh, of M. H. Hingham, Mrs. Woodward with Mr. Tunstall, and Miss Dot Walton with Mr. Agelasto.

Mrs. Oscar D. Coldeway, of Louisville, gave a large card party on last Wednesday morning at the Sweet Chalybeate Springs. The consolation prize was won by Miss Nelly, of Portsmouth.

On last Tuesday night Mrs. Jas. L. Barham, of Portsmouth, gave one of the most brilliant entertainments of the season at Sweet Chalybeate Springs to her daughter, Miss Barham, and Miss Nelly, also, of Portsmouth. It was an "Anagram Party," to which fifty guests were invited. The prizes were unique. After the games dainty refreshments were served. Promptly at 9 o'clock the guests entered the ballroom, where they were received by Mrs. Barham, assisted by Miss Nelly.
